

MARK ZINGER MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

$2500 SCHOLARSHIPS

The Mark Zinger Memorial Foundation is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to sustaining the legacy of Mark Zinger, the eminent and much-loved violin soloist and pedagogue.

Over the course of an illustrious 70-year professional career as a soloist and professor of violin performance in both the former Soviet Union and the United States, Professor Zinger created a three-generation legacy of more than 200 professional violin performers and teachers who have worked or performed in over 30 different countries.

The Zinger Foundation aims to support individuals that exemplify his contagious passion for life through music and to serve as a portal for all those shaped by his legacy.

The Zinger Foundation provides financial support for future generations of motivated and talented musicians pursuing careers in performance or teaching. We aim to empower those who embody the dedication, passion for music, and compassion of Professor Zinger.

ELIGIBILITY

The scholarship is open to violinists of all nationalities ages 17-23. Applicants must be pursuing an undergraduate degree or double major in music at an accredited university, college, or conservatory in the United States at the time of application.
